What can't I sell?

No second hand goods, goods bearing registered trademarks, which are not genuine products; items and services of an 'adult' nature which are not suitable for a public forum; items associated with the illegal use of drugs; items not in accordance with the relevant Australian Standards. No live animals.

Do I need Public Liability Insurance?

All stallholders MUST be covered by Public Liability insurance with a minimum coverage of $10,000,000.

This insurance can be provided either with the stallholders own insurance policy, or be covered (at extra expense) by the Manager's policy. If the stallholder wishes to avoid being charged for the manager's insurance, a copy of the public liability insurance certificate must be attached to the application form. Stallholders that rely on their own insurance policy must ensure that a valid insurance Certificate of Currency is provided to the Manager at all times, and display their Certificate of Currency on their stall.

Stallholders who cannot produce a valid certificate of currency will be covered by the Manager's insurance.

The Manager's insurance does not cover food vendors- therefore all food vendors must have their own insurance, and display a Certificate of Currency on their stall.

What if it rains?

The Market may operate in varying weather conditions.

It is the responsibility of the Stallholder to bring their own covers and other equipment for the purpose of protection in adverse weather conditions.

If the Market proceeds in the case of inclement or adverse weather conditions, it is solely at a Stallholder's discretion as to whether the Stallholder will set up, commence, continue trading, cease trading, or pack up on the day. Except in the case of extreme weather conditions, the Stallholder must advise the Market Coordinator of their intention to cease trading and pack up.

The Manager will not be held responsible for any loss, damage or injury whatsoever resulting from adverse weather conditions.

Adverse Weather Conditions

The Market WILL NOT be cancelled in the event of wet weather – The Markets is conducted in the open air, it is not a covered market and will operate in varying weather conditions including wet weather
